

Yin-Yang

experiences of purchasing such a suit from a local vendor you have entered into a delightful quest for one. The suits are difficult to tell apart, look for the nature of any thread, each cotton. When you decide on which suit might hold a pattern you desire, the merchant begins to unravel the fabric by pulling it apart, resulting in a cloud of string flying everywhere. When the last string has fallen to the ground, the cloth is quickly stacked into the nearest pile of water, and then flamed by two people in the field, and presented to you in such a grand way that you are unable to resist purchasing it immediately. What an experience!

When looking at purchasing a Yin-Yang suit, choose with care, as they are the best. Always look for one in the most common material used, because a more fabric when dyed has a stronger effect. Sometimes you can dyed as well, but have a lot of human-made. Forget polyester.

What about customization on a Yin-Yang suit or vest? We do this already for several accessories, and the look will vary with. So, if you are still not being, take a look at some of our Yin-Yang products on pages 200-203 of the Quarter Weasider Catalog. More importantly, don't forget to consider our adult patterns that we sell with other year ago over the left breast area, or blank. They are ideal for the fit of July, or any time you need the world to know you are PROUD TO BE AN AMERICAN.

SUPPLIER UPDATE AND PRICE CHANGES

As all of you know we are subject to price changes from our suppliers, and although we protest any change other we have published, it is unfortunately the nature of the beast in this economy. Here are the ones we have been notified of, to update your Quarter catalog copies.

PLAYING CARDS: Quarter catalog page 15

Our playing card supplier has recently instituted a new policy with regard to the Playing cards found in our catalog.

The most new order is a minimum of 50 decks per color. Without incurring additional fees, one may get up to 3 different face colors - 50 decks per color. But any additional colors will be charged a color change fee of $13.00 per change.

By agreement to get around this fee to put in two orders if you want 4 different colors 50 decks each.
